

INFORMATION ON SERIES OF DOCUMENTS

Series	BT 26
Title and Catalogue link	Board of Trade: Commercial and Statistical Department and successors: Inwards Passenger Lists - 1878-1960
Size / Scope	1476 boxes – 974,000 images approximately The entries on the lists include: • Passengers' full name, • Occupation, • Nationality, • Gender and age, • Marital status Also the port of embarkation and disembarkation
Physical format and condition	Investigations indicate that the documents consist of 2 types. Pieces 1 to 1463 contain loose papers of various sizes but from those examined they appear to be less than A2 in size. The final pieces from 1464 to 1476 are smaller cards approximately A5 in size. Many of the documents are in fragile condition. No Microfilm held.
Popularity	BT 26 ranked 48 th overall and 5 th among the BT series of document ordering in the reading rooms at The National Archives between 1st February 2006 and 15 th February 2006. As BT 27 (Outward Passenger Lists 1890-1960) is currently being digitised and will generate much promotional publicity it is expected that BT 26 will be of great interest to the public as well.
Copyright clearance	Although these records were created by the shipping companies they were created under the direction or control of the Crown and are Crown copyright
Leaflet available	Passenger Lists
Possible areas for indexing	Shipping line, port of departure, date of departure, passenger's name.
Any other relevant information	Additional finding aid is available in the reading rooms at The National Archives.